From Rotary International: Members of the Rotary Club of Windsor St. George, Berkshire, England, have found themselves in a sticky situation at the 2009 RI Convention in Birmingham -- and they wouldn't want it any other way.

At the convention, club members are selling stickers for £5 (about US$8) each. As each sticker is removed from a large panel, a little square of the Make Dreams Real logo is revealed. The money goes toward polio eradication.

From District News: June 28th District Governor Installation
