Are you on Facebook yet? Keep in mind that social networking works differently from traditional marketing, so if you decide to dive in, be open to the possibilities. "You don't know how it can expand and connect you," Schinkel says. "You can't predict exactly how it's going to work." If you register on Facebook, put in the word "Rotary" at the search window and be prepared to be amazed at the number of times it shows up.

To get the most out of it, Howat, a member of the Rotary Club of North Whidbey Island Sunrise, Wash., has this advice: "Social networking is never about you. It is about what you can do for other people," he says. "It's almost as if it's along the [lines of] Service Above Self."

Important, Fellowship was such a success last month that we are doing it again on November 4th at The Sweet Spot. See you there after 5:30 pm. See you there and bring a friend. Thanks to Randy Womack for his generous hospitality.
